The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 28, to Tuesday July 31, 1759.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 24th Day of July, 1759,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majeſty was pleaſed by His Order in Council of the 2d of June, 1758, to direct, that for the better preventing the Plague from being brought into this Kingdom, all Privateers, and all Perſons, Goods and Merchandizes on Board the ſame, coming from the Mediterranean, ſhould make their Quarantine for Forty Days, and ſtrictly conform themſelves in all Reſpects to the Rules and Regulations required to be obſerved by Ships and Veſſels coming from Smyrna, and other Parts of the Levant, and the Coaſt of Barbary—And whereas His Majeſty hath received Information that the Plague doth at this Time rage with great Violence in many Parts of the Levant, the Morea, and other adjacent Places; and it being apprehended that all Ships and Veſſels in the Mediterranean, whether Traders, Cruizers, or others, may have Communication with the Ships and Veſſels coming from ſome of the ſaid infected Places—His Majeſty doth therefore judge it neceſſary, that the beforementioned Quarantine, laid upon Privateers cruizing in the Mediterranean, ſhould be extended to all Ships and Veſſels whatſoever, coming from or through the Mediterranean: And to that End, His Majeſty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, and command, that all Ships and Veſſels whatſoever, coming from or through the Mediterranean, and all Perſons, Goods and Merchandizes on Board the ſame, that are already arrived, or ſhall hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark or Man, do make their Quarantine for Forty Days, and do likewiſe ſtrictly conform themſelves in all Reſpects to the Rules and Regulations required to be obſerved by Ships and Veſſels coming from Smyrna, and other Parts of the Levant, and the Coaſt of Barbary.—And the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter General of the Ordnance, His Majeſty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the ſaid reſpective Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. Sharpe.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 11th Day of July, 1759,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

HIS Majeſty, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, doth hereby Declare and Order, That all ſuch of His Faithful Subjects, who ſhall Inliſt themſelves as Soldiers in His Majeſty's Land Service, from this 11th Day of July, ſhall not be ſent out of Great Britain, and ſhall be entitled to their Diſcharge in Three Years, or at the End of the War if they chooſe it—And His Majeſty doth hereby further Order, That all Soldiers, who may have Deſerted before the Firſt of June laſt, ſhall be pardoned for the ſame, on Condition they join the Corps they laſt ſerved in by the 20th of Auguſt next—And in Caſe the Regiment they laſt ſerved in ſhould be out of the Kingdom, that they may then ſurrender themſelves to any other, in which they may ſerve, and be entitled to His Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.

[Price Three-Pence.]

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 26th Day of June, 1759,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Proclamation of the Fifteenth of May laſt, "For giving Encouragement to "Seamen, and Able bodied Landmen, to enter "themſelves on Board His Majeſty's Ships of "War; for granting Rewards for diſcovering "ſuch Seamen as ſhall conceal themſelves; for "pardoning ſuch Seamen as have deſerted, and "ſhall return into the Service; and alſo for "taking up all ſtraggling Seamen", will expire on the Third Day of July next.—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, that the ſeveral Encouragements thereby given, ſhould remain and continue in Force for ſome Time longer; — It is therefore hereby ordered in Council, that the Time limited by His Majeſty's aforementioned Proclamation be prolonged and extended from the ſaid Third Day of July next, to the Eighteenth Day of Auguſt following incluſive, and that the Bounties and Rewards thereby given and granted, be continued to be paid until the ſaid Eighteenth Day of Auguſt.—Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themſelves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Watſon, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Aſhburnham, one of the Lords of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled, being highly ſenſible of the many invaluable Bleſſings which this Nation has enjoyed under the Government of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe, humbly beg Leave to teſtify the Joy we feel upon the late happy and wiſhed for Event of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales's having compleated his One and Twentieth Year; an Event which further ſecures to us, and our Poſterity, the Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings under a Prince formed by your Royal Hand, and educated in the ſame mild Principles of Government, which have diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty as the Father of your Subjects, and made your Subjects the Envy of Europe.

The Succeſs, which by the Bleſſing of Providence has ſo ſignally attended your Majeſty's Arms in the Conqueſt of the Iſland of Guadaloupe, adminiſters an additional Occaſion of Joy and Congratulation.

No Wonder if the Enemy, ſtung with Reſentment at their repeated Loſſes, and the Ruin of their Commerce, meditate a fatal Blow to your Majeſty's Government, by an Invaſion of theſe Kingdoms. But, we truſt, the Protection of the Almighty, the Wiſdom and Vigour of your Majeſty's Councils, and the Courage and Fidelity of your Subjects, will, as they have hitherto done, confound their Devices, and diſappoint their Hopes.

As your Majeſty's loyal Subjects of Berwick have upon former Occaſions diſtinguiſhed their Zeal and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, ſo they are determined upon this intereſting Occaſion to riſk their Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Majeſty's juſt Rights, and the Britiſh Conſtitution.

May Succeſs ſtill wait upon your Majeſty's Arms, and crown your Endeavours to render your People happy, under a Race of Kings of your illuſtrious Houſe, zealous to defend the Liberties and Religion of theſe Kingdoms from the Encroachments of Superſtition and Arbitrary Power.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed the Common Seal of this Borough, the Twentieth Day of July, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifty Nine.

Schmotſieffen, July 13. The Corps led by the King of Pruſſia having joined the main Body of the Army, which had advanced from Hirſchberg under the Command of the Margrave Charles, on the 10th Inſtant at Gepperſdorff, his Pruſſian Majeſty choſe a ſtrong Camp on the Heights before the Village of Schmotſieffen; and the Head Quarters are at a Farm Houſe called Durren-Vohrwercks. The Situation of this Camp is a very advantageous one, and both the Flanks are well covered; on the Left is the ſmall Town of Liebenthal, and behind the Right, at about the Diſtance of one German Mile, is the Town of Loewenberg. Marſhal Daun's Head Quarters are at Gorlitz-Heim in Luſatia, and the Army under his Command is placed on the Heights behind the Queiſs, the Right extending towards Greiffenberg, and the Left towards Lauban. Nothing Material has yet paſſed between the two Armies.

Head Quarters at Peterſhagen, July 18. On the 16th the Allied Army marched and encamped at Peterſhagen; and the ſame Day Advice having been received, that the Enemy's principal Army was arrived in the Neighbourhood of Minden, and that a large Body of them had incamped on this Side the Moraſs, Prince Ferdinand gave Orders for the Allied Army to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march that Night at Twelve o'Clock. About One in the Morning his Serene Highneſs repaired to the the Camp, and taking with him all the Piquets of the Army under the Command of Lieutenant General Imhoff, advanced himſelf towards Minden, and about Four o'Clock ordered the Army to follow him in nine Columns, leaving their Tents ſtanding, and Baggage behind them. Theſe Meaſures, it was thought, were taken with Deſign to attack the French, if a proper Opportunity could be found. But in the Night between the 16th and 17th, the Enemy had ſtruck their Tents, and altered their Poſition, having withdrawn all the Troops they had on this Side the Moraſs, placing their Right to Minden, their Left towards the Mountains, the Weſer in their Rear, and the Moraſs in their Front. Under theſe Circumſtances, Orders were given about Noon to the Allied Army to return to their former Camp.

Hague, July 27. The Letters of the freſheſt Date from the Allied Army in Weſtphalia, which are of the 21ſt Inſtant, bring no farther Accounts from thence, than that Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters were ſtill at Peterſhagen; and that M. de Contades's Army remained in its former Poſition near Minden. Some Skirmiſhes only have happened ſince the 17th, in which, as we hear, the Advantage has been on the Side of the Allied Army.
